A PROCLAMATION.

Declaring His Majeſty's Pleaſure touching His Royal Coronation, and the Solemnity thereof.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS we have reſolved, by the Favour and Bleſſing of Almighty God, to celebrate the Solemnity of our Royal Coronation upon Wedneſday the Twentieth Day of this Inſtant October, at our Palace at Weſtminſter; and foraſmuch as by Ancient Cuſtomes and Uſages, as alſo in regard of divers Tenures of ſundry Manors, Lands, and other Hereditaments, many of our loving Subjects do claim, and are bound to do and perform divers ſeveral Services on the ſaid Day, and at the time of the Coronation, as in Times precedent their Anceſtors, and thoſe from whom they claim, have done and performed at the Coronations of our famous Progenitors and Predeceſſors; We therefore out of our Princely Care for the Preſervation of the Lawful Rights and Inheritances of our loving Subjects whom it may concern, have thought fit to give Notice of, and Publiſh our Reſolutions therein, and do hereby give Notice of, and Publiſh the ſame accordingly: And we do hereby further ſignifie, that by our Commiſſion under our Great Seal of Great Britain, we have Appointed and Authorized the moſt Reverend Father in Chriſt, our Right Truſty and Right entirely beloved Councellor, Thomas Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan; our Right Truſty and Well-beloved Councellor William Lord Cowper, our Chancellor of Great Britain; the moſt Reverend Father in Chriſt, our Right Truſty and Right entirely beloved Councellor William Archbiſhop of York, Primate of England, and Metropolitan; our Right Truſty and Right entirely beloved Couſin and Councellor Charles Duke of Shrewsbury our High Treaſurer of Great Britain, and Chamberlain of our Houſhold; our Right Truſty and Right Well beloved Couſins and Councellors, Daniel Earl of Nottingham, Preſident of our Council, Thomas Earl of Wharton Keeper of our Privy Seal; our Right Truſty and Right entirely beloved Couſins and Councellors William Duke of Devonſhire, Steward of our Houſhold; Charles Duke of Somerſet, Maſter of our Horſe; Charles Duke of Bolton; John Duke of Marlborough, Captain General of our Forces; John Duke of Argyle; James Duke of Montroſe, one of our Principal Secretaries of State; John Duke of Roxburghe; Henry Duke of Kent; our Right Truſty and entirely beloved Couſin and Councellor Robert Marquiſs of Lindſey, Great Chamberlain of England; our Right Truſty and Right Well-

Well beloved Couſins and Councellors, Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery; Henry Earl of Sutfolk and Bindon, Deputy to Thomas Duke of Norfolk Earl-Marſhal of England; Charles Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of our Kingdom of Ireland; Arthur Earl of Angleſey; Charles Earl of Carliſle; Montague Earl of Abingdon; Richard Earl of Scarborough; Edward Earl of Orford; our Right Truſty and Well-beloved Couſin and Councellor Charles Viſcount Townſhend, one of our Principal Secretaries of State; the Right Reverend Father in God, our Right Truſty and well beloved Counſellor, John Lord Biſhop of London; our Right Truſty and well beloved Counſellors John Lord Somers, Charles Lord Halifax, Thomas Coke, Eſq; Vice Chamberlain of our Houſhold; James Stanhope, Eſq; one of our principal Secretaries of State; Sir Thomas Parker, Kt. Lord Chief Juſtice of our Court of King's Bench; Thomas Erle, Eſq; Lieutenant General of our Ordnance, and Robert Walpole, Eſq; Paymaſter-General of our Forces, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the Petitions and Claims which ſhall be to them exhibited by any of our loving Subjects in this behalf; and we ſhall appoint our ſaid Commiſſioners for that purpoſe, to ſit in the Painted Chamber of our Pulace at Weſtminſter, upon Wedneſday the ſixth Day of this Inſtant October, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon of the ſame Day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them ſhall ſeem meet, for the Execution of our ſaid Commiſſion, which we do thus publiſh, to the Intent that all ſuch Perſons, whom it may any ways concern, may know when and where to give their Attendance for the Exhibiting of their Petitions and Claims concerning the Services before mentioned, to be done and performed unto us at our ſaid Coronation. And we do hereby ſignifie unto all and every our Subjects, whom it may concern, that our Will and Pleaſure is, and we do hereby ſtrictly charge all Perſons of what Rank or Quality ſoever they be, who either upon our Letters to them directed, or by reaſon of their Offices or Tenures, or otherwiſe, are to do any Service at the ſaid Day or Time of our Coronation, that they do duely give their Attendance accordingly, in all Reſpects furniſhed and appointed as to ſo great a Solemnity appertaineth, and anſwerable to the Dignities and Places which every one of them reſpectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they, or any of them, are not to fail, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Perils, unleſs upon ſpecial Reaſons by our ſelf, under our Hand to be allowed, we ſhall diſpenſe with any of their Services or Attendances.

Given at our Court at St. James's the Fourth Day of October, 1714. In the Firſt Year of our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

Requiring all Ships and Veſſels Trading from the Plantations, in the Way of the Algerines, to furniſh themſelves with Paſſes.

GEORGE R.

WHereas, purſuant to Treaties concluded between Our Predeceſſors, and the Government of Argiers, ſeveral Paſſes have been granted under the Hand and Seal of the High-Admirals of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners for Executing that Office of Our reſpective Dominions: And whereas Our Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of High-Admiral have humbly repreſented unto Us, That they have Reaſon to apprehend, that ſeveral of the ſaid Paſſes of the old Form have been Clandeſtinely altered, as well in their Dates, as otherwiſe, which may be very prejudicial to the Trading Ships of Our Subjects: For preventing whereof We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to Publiſh this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby declaring, That all ſuch Paſſes of the Old Form which have been ſo Iſſued, ſhall not continue in Force longer than the Thirteenth Day of July next. And We do hereby ſtrictly Charge and Command all Our Loving Subjects, who are, or ſhall be poſſeſſed of any ſuch Paſſes, That they do, as ſoon as may be, return the ſame into the Office of Admiralty of Great Britain, in Order to their being Cancelled; And whereas, purſuant to the late Treaty with Argiers, it is abſolutely neceſſary that all Ships and Veſſels belonging to Our Loving Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as Our Foreign Governments, and Plantations, which ſhall have Occaſion to Trade to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediteranean, or elſewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers of the aforeſaid Government of Argier, ſhould be furniſhed with Paſſes of the New Form, by or before the ſaid Thirteenth Day of July next, leaſt by their being met with by the Ships of Argier, unfurniſhed with ſuch Paſſes, they be brought up, and the Ships and Goods confiſcated: We do hereby ſtrictly Charge and Require the Owners, and Maſters of all Ships and Veſſels, of Our Loving Subjects, Trading as aforeſaid, to take particular Care that they do timely furniſh themſelves with ſuch Paſſes of the New Form accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Fourth Day of October, 1714. In the Firſt Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

To

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain Trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for Encouraging the Fiſhery, in General-Court Aſſembled; preſented to his Majeſty by Sir James Bateman, Sub-Governor, and the Court of Directors, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, Principal Secretary of State.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg leave to Congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe your Kingdoms, a Bleſſing which only could Retrieve the great Loſs ſuſtain'd by the Death of our late Sovereign, the moſt Excellent Queen Anne of bleſſed Memory.

We return your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for the early and ſignal Marks of your Royal Favour, in granting us the full Poſſeſſion of the two Licences to Trade to the Spaniſh Dominions in America, and the Aſſignment of the Aſſiento Contract, and confirming to us her late Majeſty's Grant of the four Ships of War.

And we aſſure your Majeſty, that under your Influence and Protection, we will chearfully Proſecute the Trade with a due Regard to the Honour of your Majeſty, and the Encouragement of the Manufactures of theſe Kingdoms.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and happy, that ſo ineſtimable a Bleſſing may be continued to your People, and may there never want one of your Royal Deſcendants to Inherit your Throne and Virtues.

To which his Majeſty returned the following gracious Anſwer.

THE Wealth and Proſperity of my People depend ſo much upon Commerce, that it ſhall be always my Care to Protect and Encourage it.

As to your Particular, I am glad I have had an Opportunity of removing any difficulties that may have hitherto obſtructed the Trade of ſo conſiderable a Body of my Subjects.

The Gentlemen who preſented the foregoing Addreſs kiſſed the King's Hand; and his Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon

James Dolliffe,
Harcourt Maſters, } Eſquires.
William Chapman.

To GEORGE, King of Great Britain, &c.

The Humble Addreſs of the People commonly called Quakers; preſented to his Majeſty October 4, 1714. by George Whitehead, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Great Prince!

IT having pleaſed Almighty God to deprive theſe Kingdoms of our late Gracious Queen, we do in great Humility approach thy Royal Preſence with Hearts truly thankful to Divine Providence for thy ſafe Arrival, with the Prince thy Son; and for thy happy and uninterrupted Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms; which, to the Univerſal Joy of thy faithful Subjects, hath ſecured to thy People the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and diſſipated the juſt Apprehenſions we were under of loſing thoſe Religious and Civil Liberties which were granted to us by Law, in the Reign of King William the Third, whoſe Memory we mention with great Gratitude and Affection.

We alſo are in Duty obliged thankfully to acknowledge thy early and gracious Declaration in Council, wherein thou haſt, in Princely and Chriſtian Expreſſions, manifeſted thy juſt Senſe of the State of thy People, and which, we hope, will make all degrees of thy Subjects eaſie.

And as it hath been our known Principle, to live peaceably under Government, ſo we hope it will always be our Practice, through God's Aſſiſtance, to approve our ſelves with hearty Affection thy Faithful and Dutiful Subjects.

May the wonderful Counſellor and great Preſerver of Men, guide the King by his Divine Wiſdom, protect him by his Power, give him Health and Length of Days here, and Eternal Felicity hereafter; and ſo bleſs his Royal Off-ſpring, that they may never fail to adorn the Throne with a Succeſſor, endued with Piety and Virtue.

The King's Anſwer.

I Am well ſatisfied with the Marks of Duty which you expreſs in this Addreſs, and you may be aſſured of my Protection.

St. James's, October 4. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the French and Dutch Churches; preſented to his Majeſty, in the Dutch Language, by the Miniſters and Elders of thoſe Churches, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State.

Which Addreſs his Majeſty received very graciouſly, and was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer,

I Thank you for your dutiful Addreſs; and you may rely upon my Protection.

An humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, with others of the Clergy in that Dioceſs; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Biſhop of Durham.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Common-Council, and others the Inhabitants of the City of Durham; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Biſhop of Durham.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Hedon in the County of York; preſented to his Majeſty by the Honourable William Pulteney and Hugh Cholmely, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Incorporation of the Borough of Taine in North-Britain; preſented to his Majeſty by Lieutenant-General Roſs, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Steward, Town Clerk and Common Council, and of the Clergy, Gentlemen and Freemen of the Town and Port of Faverſham rersham in the County of Kent; presented to his Majesty by Thomas Napleton, Esq; Steward, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorset, and the Right Honourable the Lord Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent.

An humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the Shire of Ayr, presented to his Majesty by John Montgomery, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun.

An humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham; presented to his Majesty by —— Plumptre, and —— Sherwin, Esqrs; introduced by the Right Honourable the Marquis of Dorchester, Recorder of the said Town.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, and Freemen of Totness; presented to his Majesty by Francis Gwyn, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough.

All which Addresses his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

Reissen, Sep. 20. N. S. All was in Readiness to Day for the King's Departure for Warsaw, but 'tis put off a few Days longer. On the pressing Instances of the Poles, his Majesty has granted that instead of 2 Regiments of Horse which he had ordered to march back to Saxony, 4 shall retire out of the Kingdom thither. And then there will remain in Poland 15 Saxon Regiments of Horse, and 4 of Foot. M. Smigielski is arrived here, and has made his Submission to the King. The Field-Marshal, Count Flemming, is not to accompany his Majesty to Warsaw, but first to make a Journey to Saxony. All the Letters from the Frontiers of Walachia agree, that Turkish Troops are continually filing towards Chocim, where they are increased to a formidable Body; but on what Design it is hard to conjecture, seeing the Ottoman Port profess they will religiously observe the Peace.

Parma, Sep. 17. N. S. The 15th of this Month Cardinal Gozzadini, the Pope's Legate for complimenting the new Queen of Spain, made his Entry here with a Retinue of above 500 Persons. From the City-Gate he proceeded under a Canopy, born up by the Magistrates, being accompanied by Cardinal Acquaviva, the Duke of Parma, and the Prince, and followed by their Officers, the Clergy, and Nobility, and a numerous Train of Coaches. The 16th the Legate said Mass and performed the Marriage-Ceremony in the Cathedral-Church. At the Offertory the Duke, having the King of Spain's Proxy, espoused the Princess his Niece, and placed himself by her on a Throne raised in the middle of the Choir, and the Legate gave the Benediction. We have had Illuminations and Rejoycings here, as usual on such an Occasion. The Queen is to go to Sestri di Levante, there to imbark for Spain.

Genoa, Sep. 18. N. S. The Duke of Tursis's Gallies are to put to Sea from hence this Evening for Sestri di Levante, to attend the new Queen of Spain. This Republick sends some Gallies to accompany her, as does also the great Duke of Tuscany. The Queen was to leave Parma to Day, in Order to imbark the 21st.

Madrid, Sep. 25. N. S. The 18th an Officer arrived here from Saragossa, with a short Letter which the Duke of Berwick had written to the Marquis de Tuy, acquainting him that having made a general Assault upon Barcelona the 11th, and lodged his Men on the Bastions of Santa Clara, Portalnuevo, and Levante, he looked upon himself to be Master of the Town. Two Days after came hither Sig. Lanti, Nephew of the Princess Ursini, with the News of the actual Reduction of the Place. The 23d the Duke of Berwick's Son arrived at the Pardo, with a more particular Account of the Assault on the 11th, and of the Terms allowed the Barcelonians. He reports, that the Loss of the Besiegers in the Actions of that Day was about 3500 Men killed or wounded, and that of the Besieged little less. Several Standards and Colours are brought hither, among them the Standard of Santa Olalia held in so much Veneration by the Catalonians. The Government of that Principality will soon be put upon a new Establishment, a Council of Castilian Ministers being appointed to reduce it to a Province in the same manner as has been done by Arragon and Valencia, Orders having been given already for disarming the People. The King's Ships having sailed the 11th from the Coast of Catalonia, 'tis supposed the Queen is already imbarked, and therefore Prayers are ordered to be made in divers Churches for her happy Voyage: 'Tis said the King will set out the 2d of October for Aranjuez, where he intends to receive her Majesty; and the Marquis de Valouſe, Mayordomo in waiting, is gone to ſee that Palace fitted up, and provided for her Majeſty's Reception. Since the taking of Barcelona, Orders are iſſued for the Miniſters of the ſeveral Councils to be paid Ten Months Arrears.

Navy Office, Sept. 30 1714.

Whereas Information hath been given, by a Letter of the 25th of September, to His Grace the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, That there have been very great Frauds, and divers illegal Practices committed in His Majeſty's Navy, by a certain Commander and his Accomplices, to the great Deſtruction of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms: The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, in Purſuance of his Grace's Command in that Behalf, That if the Perſons who wrote the ſaid Letter will come and make out to us what they have alledged in the ſaid Letter, they ſhall receive all fitting Incouragement and Protection.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1714.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having ſome time ſince ordered the four Seamen undermentioned to be Entertained in his Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich as Penſioners; but they not having yet made their Appearance at the ſaid Hoſpital, their Lordſhips are pleaſed to give Notice, that if they do not apply themſelves to Sir William Gifford, Kt. Governor of the aforeſaid Hoſpital, within three Weeks after the Date hereof, other diſabled Seamen will be entertained there in their rooms.
